THE ROLE

We are looking for an experienced candidate with Health and Social Care and Management experience to join our team.

You will be responsible for supporting a skilled and knowledgeable support team, providing care and support to people with learning difficulties living in their own home in line with our values of being person-centred, positive and inclusive.

This exciting new service will provide bespoke and tailored supported living accommodation for four people with learning difficulties and associated behavioural challenges.

This provision of individualised self-contained apartments will provide capable environments to meet a range of complex care and support needs. The service will be developed for all individuals with multi-disciplinary engagement to ensure the principles of PBS in terms of; quality of life improvement, behavioural reduction, skill-building, promoting independence and empowerment, which are the core of care and support arrangements.

The candidate will be required to coach, mentor and motivate staff to create a culture where everyone can achieve their best. The successful candidate must have excellent communication skills and encourage people to be innovative, share ideas, support decision making and promote empowerment. You will be required to work various shift patterns including weekend working and will have dedicated off rota time for management administration.

The role will involve working across services and offering support for staff teams and services going through difficult periods.

This is a fantastic opportunity for someone to contribute in shaping the lives of the people we support.
